1 Policy Statement

- 1.1 The business of STL is built on trust and integrity as perceived by our stakeholders, especially our Clients, shareholders and regulators.
- 1.2 An important element of trust and integrity is ensuring that STL conducts its business in accordance with the values and Code of Ethics that the Group has adopted, in compliance with applicable laws, rules and standards.
- 1.3 The STL FAIS Conflict of Interest Policy (STL) (the “Policy”) is designed to comply with applicable statutory and regulatory obligations, ensuring that:
 - 1.3.1 Roles and responsibilities of all internal stakeholders are clearly set out;
 - 1.3.2 That STL and its Employees are protected from civil and criminal sanctions, reputational and other damages that may be imposed for regulatory breaches.
- 1.4 STL supports consumer protection and all measures to improve the integrity of the South African financial services industry. To protect our reputation and integrity, all reasonable steps have been taken to ensure that we comply with consumer protection legislation. FAIS is integral in protecting consumers and regulates market conduct within the financial services industry. The FAIS impacted business areas within STL are Managed Agencies and Asset Swaps.
- 1.5 STL has adopted and implemented the provisions of the Group’s FAIS Conflict of Interest Management Policy.
- 1.6 Ownership interests

STL does not hold any ownership interest in any Group or other entity. The Group holds 100% ownership interests in STL.

2 Applicability

- 2.1 This Policy applies to all Employees of STL.
- 2.2 There are no exclusions to this Policy.

3.1 Conflict of Interest

3.1.1 A Conflict of Interest may occur when rendering a financial service to an existing or potential customer. Such Conflict may occur when STL or a Representative does not act objectively or does not render an unbiased or fair service to an existing or potential customer or does not act in a customer's best interest. A key conflict can occur when STL or a Representative receives a financial or ownership interest from a Third Party.

3.1.2 In terms of the Code, STL must make all necessary steps to eliminate any practices and/or services that may create a Conflict between their own interests and the interests of customers.

3.1.3 This Policy does not change the Group's existing Conflict of Interest policies and management procedures, but is a supplementary policy addressing the specific requirements of the Code, as it applies to STL.

3.1.4 Immaterial Financial Interests are dealt with under the Group's gifts and entertainment policies ("Gift Policies"). The Gift Policies require business areas to keep a register through which all Employees must report gifts offered or received. The STL Business Compliance Officer has access to the register to facilitate compliance with the requirements of this Policy.

3.1.5 Conflict of Interest situations must be avoided. Where it is not possible to avoid any act, action or reward that may create a Conflict of Interest, appropriate steps must be taken to mitigate the impact and must be appropriately disclosed to an existing or potential customer at the earliest reasonable opportunity.

3.2 Identifying Conflict of Interest

3.2.1 To identify a Conflict of Interest the following steps must be applied by STL:

3.2.1.1 Analysis of all the distribution models of STL.

3.2.1.2 Analysis of Third Party relationships with STL.

3.2.1.3 The Types of Financial Interests received and/or offered.

3.2.1.4 Remuneration models for Representatives must be signed off by management.

3.2.1.5 Appropriate rules must be put in place around the receipt or offering of Immaterial Financial Interests in keeping with Gift Policies.

3.2.1.6 Regularly viewing all disclosures in terms of FAIS to ensure appropriate identification and disclosure of Conflict of Interest.

3.3 Managing non-compliance

Non-compliance with this policy must be escalated to STL's Business Compliance Officer and Managing Director, together with a recommendation as to the measures to be taken to mitigate the non-compliance.

3.4 Contractual relationships

Our contractual relationship with our Key Individuals and Representatives prevents them from rendering intermediary services (under a CAT I and CAT II licence) outside of the approved sub-categories.

3.5 Processes and procedures for compliance

The following internal procedures must be followed:

3.5.1 Each Representative, Key Individual and manager is required to read and familiarise themselves with this Code, this Policy and The FAIS Conflict of Interest Policy.

3.5.2 Specific training and educational material on how Conflict of Interest may arise and how it can be avoided must be provided to FAIS Affected Staff on an ongoing basis.

4 Financial Interest

4.1 STL may only receive or offer the following Financial Interests from or to a Third Party:

4.1.1 Subject to any other law, an Immaterial Financial Interest.

4.1.2 A Financial Interest for which a consideration, fair value or remuneration that is reasonably in line with the value of the Financial Interest is paid by STL or Representative at the time of its receipt or paid by the FSP or Representative of the FSP for the Financial Interest offered by STL.

4.1.3 Commission paid once off to a Third Party's representative for referrals to STL which is not directly claimed from the client.

- 4.2 STL will not offer any Financial Interest to a Key Individual or Representative for favouring quantity of business over quality of service.
- 4.3 Representatives are mandated to render intermediary services to existing or potential customers. Representatives are remunerated by salary. Discretionary bonuses may be offered based on the performance of STL as well as the Individual Representative's performance. STL may provide cash and non-cash benefits from time to time to its Representative in line with the Group's Gratification Policy.
- 4.3.1 Matters relating to sign on bonuses (if and when applicable) will be managed in accordance with the Group FAIS Conflict of Interest Management Policy.
- 4.4 Breaches of this policy must be reported to the line management and Compliance function.
- 4.5 Recordkeeping

All records relating to FAIS should be retained by line management for a minimum period of five years.
